

VENTER J J. 1975. YESTERDAY AND TODAY: THE TASK OF THE UNIVERSITY.

Originally in: Koers 60, 1975 (4, 5, en 6). This was a Festschrift dedicated to J A L Taljaard, entitled:

SOCIAL THEORY AND PRACTICE: CROSSCUTS AND PERSPECTIVES.

It should also be considered a very dense summary of my research into the history of views on the task of the university for the Research Group, De Universiteit, under the leadership of the late Dr A Th Brüggemann-Kruijff (1973-75) This research was published in book format in 1978, Entitled: De taak van de universiteit.

The article does not have any headings, thus I have construed headings for the table of contents. The printers devil has inserted two foreign pages between the article and the bibliography. Thus there are pages numbers missing, but no real pages.

CONTENTS:

• The battle about the role of the university in present-day society	402
- Why 'task' and not 'structure' of the university?	402
- 'Totalitarian' university	403
- Search for the 'universal' in the university	403
- The university in action	404
• Medieval university	404
- School and church	404
• Nineteenth century	404
- Fichte	405
- Schleiermacher	406
- Von Humboldt	407
• Twentieth century	407
- Karl Jaspers	408
- Henry Newman	409
- Clark Kerr	410
- H E Barnes	410
- Horkheimer	410
- Ton Regtien	410
• Totalitarian or differentiated university?
- A 'church'?	411
- A worldview provider and motivator?	412
- A servant or instrument of 'society'?	413
- Disclosing norms	413
- Scholarship and norms	414-5

- Collegiality	415
- Specialization	417
- Philosophy and the special sciences	417
• Cultural crisis
- Confusion	417
- Playing God	417
- Caritas	418
Bibliography	423